      http://gradschool.tamucc.edu/appreciationweek.html
      In conjunction with the National Association of Graduate-Professional Students, College of Graduate Studies has partnered with across-campus units to establish the 1st annual Graduate Student Appreciation Week (GSAW), a week-long series of campus-wide events to honor and recognize the contributions of our graduate students. Events for the week of April 7-11 are spread throughout different times during the day and offered via WebEx to include all graduate students. Please RSVP for the awards luncheon as soon as possible. Please consider allowing class to be released a half hour early or begin late so students can participate and promote as much as possible. Volunteers are needed, especially for WebEx sessions. Please contact Cassandra.Casanova@tamucc.edu.

C. Graduate Scholarships – Dr. Thomas Naehr: Summer priority awarding period is over. Only Business and S&E awarded Summer priority scholarships. A meeting is being planned to discuss changes and criteria before April 15 (final deadline for Summer scholarships). Starting with the Fall semester, the time for committee review will increase from one week to two. More information about the April 15 resolution regarding offers of financial support will be distributed.

Dr. Sherman motioned to request better documentation of the flow process and timeline for new graduate program approval process, streamlining the process, and eliminating delays in the process. Dr. Jarrell seconded. 8 approved, 1 opposed

C. Dr. Canales: Final graduate council meeting on May 8 will be a breakfast. E-sign Live will be replacing Echosign. Program Coordinator Meetings will be reinstated. University Rule 12.99.99.C03 (Graduate Faculty) will be revisited.
